Governance of the Competition

2. The Senior Shield shall be wholly governed by HKFA.

General Provisions

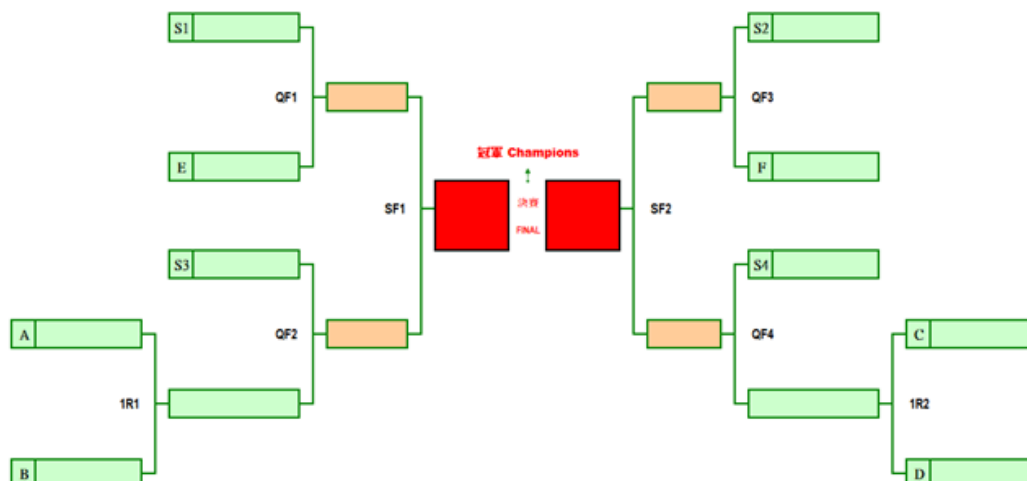

3. Unless otherwise stated in these Regulations, 2025/26 Hong Kong Premier League Competition Regulations shall apply.
4. Unless otherwise stated in these Regulations, the current HKFA Constitution, rules, regulations, codes, guidelines, circulars or directives in force at the time of the Competition are binding for all parties participating and involving in the Competition (including but not limited to the players, team officials, referees or competition staff, etc).

Club Entry & Participation

5. The participating teams of 2025/26 Hong Kong Premier League shall participate in Senior Shield. Each participating club shall not send more than one team to participate. The HKFA Board has the right to invite local or foreign teams to participate in the Competition.
6. With the approval of at least two-thirds of attending directors, the HKFA Board may reject the application filed by any team for participation in the Competition.

Playing Format and Related Arrangement

7. Each participating team shall send its best team to play. Otherwise, it shall submit a report specifying the reason to the Secretariat of HKFA.
8. The Senior Shield will be played under single knockout format. The participating teams shall be drawn to play each other by lot drawing while the teams that advanced to the semi-finals of the 2024-25 Senior Shield will be the seeded teams and will directly advance to the second round of the Senior Shield.

9. Each Match shall last ninety (90) minutes, comprising two (2) periods of forty-five (45) minutes, with a half-time interval of fifteen (15) minutes. When a match ends in a tie after completion of the 90-minute period, the match shall go into extra time which is comprising two (2) periods of fifteen (15) minutes. If the result is still draw, a penalty shoot-out as defined in the Laws of the Game will be applied to determine the winner of the match.

10. The Competition shall allow each playing team to nominate up to twelve (12) substitutes in a match.

The substitution arrangement will be applied as follows:

During the match, each team:

- has a maximum of five substitutes
- has a maximum of three substitution opportunities*
- may additionally make substitutions at half-time

Where extra time is played, each team:

- may use an additional substitute (whether or not the team has used its maximum number of substitutes)
- has one additional substitution opportunity* (whether or not the team has used its maximum number of substitution opportunities)
- may additionally make substitutions:
 - in the period between full-time and the start of extra time
 - at half-time in extra time
- If a team has not used its maximum number of substitutes or substitution opportunities, the unused substitutions and opportunities may be used in extra time.

* Where both teams make a substitution at the same time, this will count as a used substitution opportunity for each team. Multiple substitutions by a team during the same stoppage in play count as one used substitution opportunity.

According to the IFAB Law of The Game 2024/25 Law 3.2, the Competition shall implement the “Additional Permanent Concussion Substitutions Protocol”. Please refer to the article for the principles and procedures.

11. HKFA has the right to change or alter the competition system based on the number of participating teams or other special reasons and reserves the right to modify the competition system if necessary.

12. If any team withdraws from the Competition, the completed match record will not be affected and the remaining match schedule will continue according to the fixture.

Match Venue and Fixture

13. HKFA is responsible for the venue arrangement.
14. HKFA shall be responsible for drawing up the fixtures of the Competition and the Participating Clubs shall play in all their matches so arranged. The fixture list containing match information including but not limited to: the dates, kick-off times, venues, Home Teams (first-named) and Visiting Teams (last-named) shall be disseminated by HKFA to participating clubs before the commencement of a season as soon as it is fixed. The fixture may change at the discretion of the HKFA.
