Hong Kong Football Association 2019-2020 Jockey Club Youth League Competition Regulation (Updated on 9th August 2019)

Name and Nature of the League

1. The competition shall be officially called the “Jockey Club Youth League”. Hong Kong Football Association (hereinafter referred to as the “HKFA”) reserves the right to add the name of the Title Sponsor or its product name. The League comprise the following groups:

Under-18 (for persons born on or after 1 January, 2002);
Under-16 (for persons born on or after 1 January, 2004);
Under-15 (for persons born on or after 1 January, 2005);
Under-14 (for persons born on or after 1 January, 2006);
Under-13 (for persons born on or after 1 January, 2007)

The Jockey Club Youth League aimed at providing more opportunities for young footballers, enhance football skills, promote sports spirit and facilitate friendships.

Management of the League

2. The League is organized by HKFA, The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust as the major partner and subvented by Leisure and Cultural Services Department.
3. HKFA reserves the right to alter or modify the Rules and Regulations of the League if necessary.
4. The League shall comply with the Laws of the Game as laid down by the International Football Association Board (IFAB) (except for return substitution).

Application

5. District teams under the Jockey Club Youth Football Development Program are invited to join the competition. HKFA members, other football associations and legally registered clubs, companies, institutions and organizations may file an application. The applications of HKFA member will be prioritized. The League reserves the right to reject any application by any member or non-member without any reason.

Applying club/team must complete the application form designated by the League within the application period and deliver the completed application form together with the application fee HK$1,500 and deposit HK$1,000 to HKFA. The League will not consider any application to which either the registration fee or the deposit is not attached.

The League is open for registration. If more than forty (40) teams (thirty (32) teams for U15 and U16) applied for a particular group, the priority will be given in the following order:

- 1) Team ranking in Youth League 2018-2019 *(Note 1)
(only applicable for U14 to U18);
- 2) Eighteen (18) district teams;
- 3) Premier League members;
- 4) First Division members;
- 5) Second Division members;
- 6) Third Division members;
- 7) Other members (in order of affiliated member > non-voting member); and
- 8) Other organizations (The team shall be organized by a school, registered entity or registered company and shall submit a copy of corporate registration certificate for application.)

In case of one or more teams falling into any of the categories from 2) to 8) listed above, HKFA will decide the priority order based on the order of application.

*(Note 1) Selection priority and final ranking in Youth League 2018-2019:

The final ranking in Youth League 2018-2019 herein refer to the ranking in its first stage. Applying teams are selected in the following order: Ten teams in First Division, followed by first to tenth places in Second Division and followed by first to tenth places in Third Division. Teams for each group are selected based on ranking in the following order:

- 1) U18 Group will be based on ranking in U16 Group 2018-2019 first, then will be based on U18 Group 2018-2019 (if a club didn't join U16 Group in 2018-2019)
 - 2) U16 Group will be based on ranking in U15 Group 2018-2019;
 - 3) U15 Group will be based on ranking in U14 Group 2018-2019; and
 - 4) U14 Group will be based on ranking in U13 Group 2018-2019.
6. More than one (1) team (two (2) teams as maximum) could be participated in U18 Group this year.
- After accepting the participating teams which have been participated in 2018-2019, HKFA would give priority to the second team from the Hong Kong Premier League this year. The priority of selection for the remaining number of the second team: 18 district teams > First Division members > Second Division members > Third Division members > Other members (affiliated members > non-voting member) > Other organizations (The team shall be organized by a school, registered entity or registered company and shall submit a copy of corporate registration certificate for application). In order to protect our member clubs, the two participating teams from a same member club will not be arranged in the same group, and this will be arranged in the lot-drawing ceremony (details will be announced later).

Match Organizations

7. The League shall be held in accordance with this Regulation.
8. The League is held between September 2019 and June 2020. (The ending day of the League may be extended to July depends on the weather condition or special reasons.)

9. Duration of the competition in each Group is as follows:
- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| U18 and U16 | ● 90-minutes, divided into first half for 45-minutes and second half for 45-minutes |
| U15 | ● 80-minutes, divided into first half for 40-minutes and second half for 40-minutes |
| U14 and U13 | |
| First Division | ● 75-minutes, divided into three sessions, 25-minutes for each session |
| Second and Third Division | ● 60-minutes, divided into three sessions, 20-minutes for each session |
| FA Cup and FA Shield | ● 60-minutes, divided into three sessions, 20-minutes for each session |
10. Cooling break will be adopted if the Hong Kong Observatory hoisted the Very Hot Weather Warning thirty (30) minutes before the kick off. Details please refer to the Attachment 1 “Competition Guideline under Very Hot Weather”.
11. A match shall not commence or continue if the number of players of either team is less than seven (7) upon the scheduled kickoff time or during the match.
12. Substitution arrangements are as follows:

Each team may select eleven (11) Starting Players from the team list (Form B) and thirteen (13) Substitute Players at most prior to commencement of the match. During the match, five (5) players (including the goalkeeper) at most on each team are allowed to be substituted. The player being substituted could not participate in the rest of the match.

U16 and U15:

Each team may select eleven (11) Starting Players from the team list (Form B) and eleven (11) Substitute Players at most prior to commencement of the match. During the match, seven (7) players (including the goalkeeper) at most on each team are allowed to be substituted. The player being substituted could not participate in the rest of the match.

U14 and U13:

Before the match starts, teams should select all qualified players from the team list (Form B) who have been present and pick eleven (11) Starting Players for the first session. During the first session, teams are not allowed to make any substitution unless there are injuries’ of players or goalkeeper is being sent off.

Teams should select eleven (11) players to participate in the second session from the team list (Form B) before the second session starts. Players who didn’t participate in the first session must be included in this session. Teams are not allowed to make any substitution unless there are injuries’ of players or goalkeeper is being sent off in this session.

Teams should select eleven (11) players to participate in the third session from the team list (Form B) before the third session starts. Teams can randomly select eleven (11) players to play in this session from the team list (Form B). During the third session, each team may substitute players twice, for each substitution, three (3) players (including the goalkeeper) at most are allowed to be substituted. The player being substituted could participate again in the rest of the match.

The above substitution arrangements aim at enhancing opportunities and playtime of youth players. Any substitutions violated the regulations or behaviors from team officials found to be deprived players' playing opportunities by HKFA or related officials (including any individual involving the Club, staff member of HKFA, Match Review Panel of HKFA and/or any other individual who holds a job title with HKFA), including but not limited to encouragement of defrauding injury, encouragement of absence towards youth players, investigation will be adopted by HKFA and be referred to Disciplinary Committee.

U18, U16 and U15

Prior to commencement of the match, referee will check the equipment of player whose name is on the starting list, and stamped on the back of the hand of player for identification.

If a player fails to provide his equipment for inspection prior to commencement of the first half, the player is not allowed to take part in the first half of the match. The player may have the inspection procedure done during the half time break. The referee and the duty officer may check the identity of late arrival player and inspect his equipment during the half time break, and then stamped on the back of his hand for identification. If a player fails to provide his equipment for inspection prior to commencement of the second half, the player is not allowed to take part in the match.

If it is necessary to change a player, the team must submit the completed player substitution form to the assistant referee, and the assistant referee will check and stamped on the player's hand for verification. The team does not have to submit the player's registration card for photo verification during substitution of player.

Prior to commencement of the match, referee will check the equipment of player whose name is on the starting list, and stamped on the back of the hand of player for identification.

If a player fails to provide his equipment for inspection prior to commencement of the first session, the player is not allowed to take part in the first session of the match. The player may have the inspection procedure done during the time break before the second session. The referee and the duty officer may check the identity of late arrival player and inspect his equipment during the time break, and then stamped on the back of his hand for identification. If a player fails to provide his equipment for inspection prior to commencement of the second session, the player is not allowed to take part in the second session. The referee and the duty officer may check the identity of late arrival player and inspect his equipment during the time break, and then stamped on the back of his hand for identification. If a player fails to provide his equipment for inspection prior to commencement of the third session, the player is not allowed to take part in the third session.

If it is necessary to change a player, the assistant referee will check and stamped on the player's hand for verification. The team does not have to submit the player's registration card for photo verification during substitution of player.

13. The League is conducted in two stages. The Youth League remains a promotion/relegation system this year. The promotion/relegation of teams will be determined by the result of the play-off.

[First Stage –Group Competitions and League Competitions]

Group

For U13 age group, it will be converted to a day league format to determine the eligibility for participation in First, Second & Third Division. Please refer to [Attachment 2] for details.

Teams playing in U14, U15 and U16 will not participate in group stage and will be directly divided into First Division, Second Division and Third Division according to the result of 2018-2019 season. The rest of the teams that did not play in 2018-2019 will play in Third Division this year.

Teams playing in U18 are divided into eight (8) groups (from Group A to Group H) by lot drawing. Each of the Groups comprise of five (5) teams. A total of forty (40) teams shall play under the single round robin system (to ensure fairness, the two participating teams from the same member club will not be arranged in the same group). Each team will be informed of the date of lot drawing in advance. First ranked team of each group shall play in First Division, second ranked team of each group shall play in Second Division, and the rest of the team shall play in Third Division.

League - First Division

Teams in First Division shall play under triple round robin system to determine the ranking.

League - Second Division

Teams in Second Division shall play under the double round robin system to determine the ranking.

League - Third Division

Third Division shall play under the single round robin system to determine the ranking. U15 and U16 will be divided into two (2) groups by lot drawing. Teams with the same ranking in each group shall play against each other to determine the final ranking of the third division. If a competition ends in a tie, a penalty shoot-out and a penalty kick as defined in the Laws of the Game will be applied to determine the winner of the competition. U13, U14 and U18 will be divided into three groups by lot drawing. Teams with the same ranking of each group shall play a single round robin to determine the final ranking of the third division.

Please refer to article 15 to article 17 for details of ranking determination of group stage and league stage matches.

Play-off (Promotion/Relegation)

After the end of league stage, every age group (except U16 as U18 will start with group stage in next season) have to participant in the play-off to determine teams' promotion/relegation for next season. Last two ranked teams of first division will play knockout match against first two ranked teams of second division for the two places of first division next season. (Last team of first division VS champion of second division and second last team of first division VS 1st Runner-up of second division) Last two ranked teams of second division will play knockout match against first two ranked teams of third division for the two places of second division next season. (Last team of second division VS champion of third division and second last team of second division VS 1st Runner-up of third division)

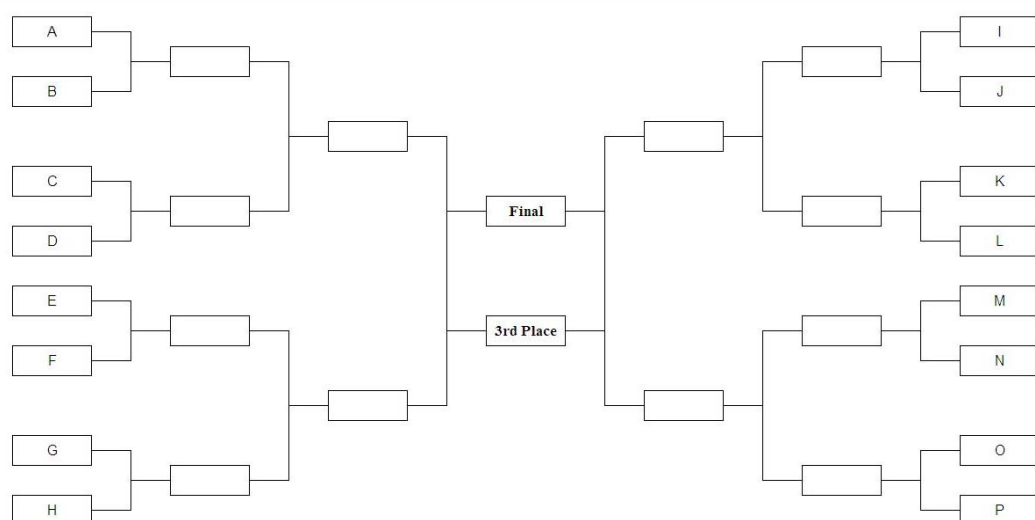

The play-off will be play in single-elimination. If a competition ends in a tie, a penalty shoot-out and a penalty kick as defined in the Laws of the Game will be applied to determine the winner of the competition.

[Second Stage - FA Cup / FA Shield]

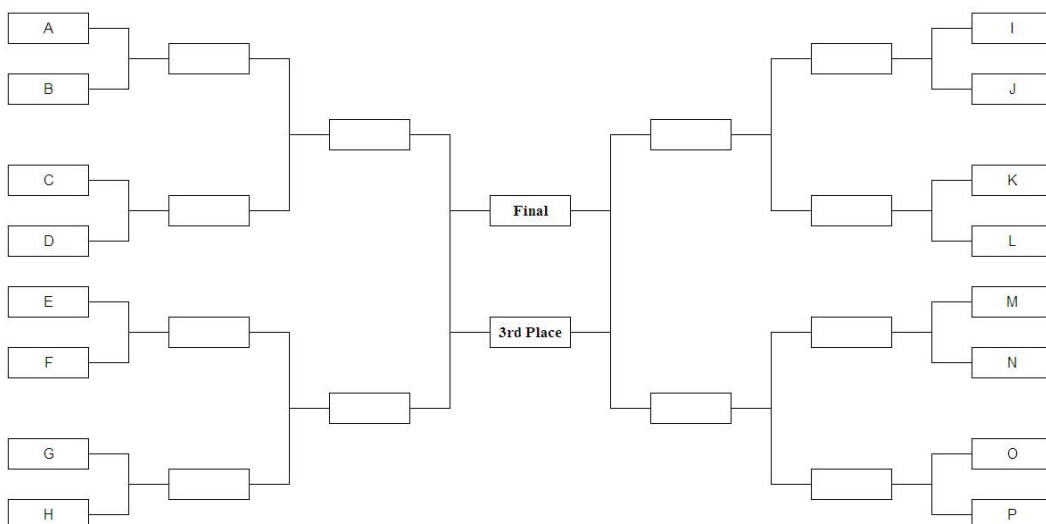

Teams in first division and second division will play in FA Cup while teams in third division will play in FA Shield. Seed teams and lot drawing will determine the matches of first round.

When any of the competitions in FA Cup/FA Shield ends in a tie, a penalty shoot-out and a penalty kick as defined in the Laws of the Game will be applied to determine the winner of the competition.

FA Cup – U13/U14/U15/U16/U18

FA Shield – U15/U16

FA Shield – U13/U14/U18

Note: If a team withdraws in the middle of a competition in any of these three stages or any violation of any rules results in the competition resulting the failure of commencement or the competition is being aborted, then all the records regarding the competitions that the team has played and the ranking and qualification shall be cancelled, and the team ranked immediately lower shall replace its position.

Modification of Competition System

Football Used in Matches and Basic Equipment

26. HKFA shall arrange and decide the match venue and inform the playing teams. HKFA will provide match ball if there is commercial sponsorship obtained, if not, the match ball used in a competition shall be provided by team named first in the fixture.
 - 1) Every club that participates in the competitions organized by HKFA is required to register the colour of their kits (including shirts, shorts and socks). To avoid a clash in colours, the outfield players must have shirts and socks with at least 2 different colours, and the goalkeepers must have shirts and socks with at least 3 different colours. When playing in the matches, the players of the playing teams shall wear shirts and socks which in the opinion of the referee is of a sufficient contrast that the refereeing officials shall be able to distinguish clearly between the two playing teams. The following order of precedence shall apply for the selection of the choice of shirts and socks by the referee:
 - i. 1st priority: the outfield players of the [home] team (except the goalkeeper);
 - ii. 2nd priority: the outfield players of the [away] team (except the goalkeeper);
 - iii. 3rd priority: the goalkeeper of the [home] team;
 - iv. 4th priority: the goalkeeper of the [away] team.Referee takes the final decision regarding to the kits colours of the teams.
 - 2) A number must appear clearly on the shirt and shorts, and a player must wear a shirt and shorts with the same number printed on his shirt and shorts whenever he participates in a match. The location of the number on the shirt and shorts of the same team must be identical.
 - 3) The number appearing on the shirt and shorts must be between from 1 to 99, and number 1 must be worn by a goalkeeper.
 - 4) Apart from the goalkeeper, the shirts, shorts and stockings worn by the outfield players of the same team must be identical. The colours of the shirts and stockings (including the goalkeepers) of home kit and reserve kit must have a clear colour contrast of dark and light.
 - 5) All advertisement regarding the equipment or jerseys of the football teams / players shall be done in accordance with the 2019-2020 Equipment Regulation.
 - 6) Each team should prepare their home and away jersey in each of the competition for arrangement in line with above situation.
 - 7) All protection equipment being used in matches by players, such as masks and goggles, a written request must be submitted forty-eight (48) hours before the kickoff of the match. All protection equipment shall only be used during the match after an approval of HKFA.

Player Registration and Qualification

28. The registration procedure shall be completed in accordance with the “Rules of the Association” and the “HKFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players”. Except as otherwise provided herein, all regulations and rules provided by HKFA for player identity and team transfer shall be applicable to the competitions. Staff and players of the team shall complete the registration procedure through the online registration system “HK Football Connect”. The team has to log in the system to complete the registration.
29. Any request for the registration of the players must be submitted in writing on or before 29th May 2020. Any late request will not be entertained. (for U18 age group, please refer to the registration window mentioned in Article.32).
30. After players have completed the registration procedure, the team has to submit to the Participating Players List (including at least fifteen (15) players) to the Player’s Registration Department on or before 13th September 2019. The team has to choose qualified players from the Participating Players List and specify the player information on the list for Player’s Registration Department’s verification. Team which is unable to submit the Participating Players List (including at least fifteen (15) players) before deadline shall be deemed to have violated regulations and be punished by the Disciplinary Committee. All teams can amend the Participating Players List at any time throughout the season according to the related regulations.
31. The team will be issued a registration certificate of game supervisors and players after the Player’s Registration Department has verified the Participating Players List. Name, photo and registration number of each game supervisor and players are presented in order to secure their qualification for participation in the match.

If the team fails to show the referee a valid registration certificate of game supervisors and players immediately prior to a match, the match shall not be started, and the team shall be deemed to have violated regulations and be punished by the Disciplinary Committee.

Each team is allowed to register no more than twenty-two (22) players (no more than twenty-four (24) players for U18) for the entire competition. Any player who has been registered in Premier League, First Division, Second Division, Third Division or Reserve Division must complete the transfer procedures prior to commencement of the game in order to participate in this competition.

32. Limitation on player registration with U18 age group regarding to FIFA regulations on professional players:
There are two registration windows for the Competition. Each registration window shall open on a date as communicated by the HKFA.
 - 1) Registration Window 1: 11st July 2019 to 2nd October 2019
(A professional whose contract has expired prior to the end of a registration period may be registered outside this registration period and the date will be extended to 2nd December 2019.);
 - 2) Registration Window 2: 2nd January 2020 to 29th January 2020
(A professional whose contract has expired prior to the end of a registration period may be registered outside this registration period and the date will be extended to 27th March 2020.)

* This will be processed in accordance with to the “FIFA Player Status”, please refer to the relevant regulations for details

33. A player that has been registered in Premier League, Reserve Division, First Division, Second Division or Third Division this season may also participate in the Youth League. However, the player has to participate on behalf of the same football club or football club under the youth training corporation program conducted by the same football club and the local authority (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation Program"). (An agreement must be signed with the football club.) The League has the right to reject the player participating in the game without prior notice if it suspects the player's qualification.

A new player that has no registration record this season must complete the registration procedure for youth players in the name of the member before participate any competition. Such player is only allowed to take part in the League.

34. If a player that has been enrolled to play Premier League wants to participate in this League as a youth player under the Corporation Program, he must register for the election test conducted by the district football club. Selected youth player will be qualified for the Corporation Program and is able to play on the team under the Corporation Program. In case the player registered to play Premier League does not register for the election test conducted by the district football club, he shall be deemed as a player unqualified for the Corporation Program. The player under the Corporation Program shall still play as the player of his original football club while representing the team under the Corporation Program. A player on the team that does not participate in the Corporation Program shall only represent the registered district team.
35. If the referee or the duty officer suspects any youth player's identity before or during a match, he has the right to ask the player to show the ID certificate or other valid identification, such as passport, identification document, HKID card or other documents (i.e. supporting documents approved by the League) to prove his qualification and sign on the team list. If it is proved that a team sends an un-registered or ineligible player to play, the referees or HKFA duty officer has the right not to start the match or to terminate the match immediately. The case will refer to Disciplinary Committee according to disciplinary procedure.
36. Each Participating Club is responsible for and bears the onus of fielding only eligible Participating Players in a match. If it is proved that a team sends an un-registered or ineligible player to play, it shall be deemed to have violated regulations and the case will refer to Disciplinary Committee according to disciplinary procedure.
37. If a match is abandoned by the Referee for any other reason after kick-off and the match shall be re-scheduled, only the players that are submitted in the "Participating Players List" as of the date of the match are allowed to play the re-scheduled match.

Limitations of Players Transfer

38. A youth player shall not represent more than one football club or team (only player who was fielded in the match will be counted) or participate in more than one age group during the same period.
39. When a player transfers from one football club to another, the football club from which the player transfers is required to deal with all such transfer procedures and shall send a written consent to the transfer of the player.

40. If a youth player is registered to another football club after commencement of this League and plays in Premier League, First Division, Second Division, Third Division or Reserve Division (i.e. a football club not participating in the Corporation Program), the player shall not be able to take part in any youth competitions in the same season.
41. If a player of a football club under the Corporation Program transfers to another club under the Corporation Program, the player shall still be able to play as the player on the team under the Corporation Program.
42. If a team intends to arrange a potential youth player into the higher age group for which players are eligible, the team must fill an application with the HKFA for such arrangement. (If the team is supported by a district football club, the team must acquire the consent of the Technical Department of HKFA before dealing with any transfer procedures.) However, the player shall not play in the age group where he originally plays during the same period when the player plays in the higher age group.

In the entire season, the player playing in the high-level group may apply for being relegated to his original group (i.e. the same group as he was in before promotion to the higher level) once. If the age of the player is appropriate, the player may also apply for being delegated to the age group for which younger players are eligible. Arrangement in the delegation procedure is same as the arrangement done for the promotion to a higher level.

In U18, a player can apply to transfer to another team of the same club when a club successfully applied two teams. The player cannot play for the original team at this period. The player can apply for transfer to the original team (procedure is same as the arrangement done for the promotion to a higher level/relegation to lower level). When a player succeeds to apply transferring to another team of the same club, promoting/relegating to other age groups is not allowed.

If there is a player vacancy in any age group, a player meeting the age requirement for the group may fill in the vacancy. (This is so called the substitution system, which is only applicable to district football clubs.)

Ineligible Players

43. A player that is found with any of the following situations shall be deemed as ineligible player:
 - 1) The team fails to register the player in accordance with the Regulations of HKFA and Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players by FIFA.

 - 3) The name of the player is not in the team list (Form B) provided by HKFA.
 - 4) Personal information given during referee inspection is inconsistent with that specified in the "List of Registered Players".
 - 5) A player disguises the player whose identity check has been completed to play a competition.
 - 6) The player should have not played the competition due to any kind of suspension.

If a team allows any ineligible player to participate in a competition, the board of directors of HKFA or relevant committee shall impose proper disciplinary action in accordance with the Disciplinary Code, including but not limited to:

- Fine;
- Adjudicating the Club to have lost the Match by 0-3, or if the goal difference at the end of the Match in question is greater than 0-3, the result on the pitch is upheld or a replay of the Match; and
- Decision issued by the board of directors or relevant committee.

Registration of Game Supervisors

44. Each team must enroll at least one up to seven (7) employees at the age of 21 or above to be the team supervisor(s). At least one supervisor must be a coach with class C or above assessed by Asian Football Confederation and registered with Hong Kong Football Association. A supervisor has to present for the entire competition. If before or during the match, either team has no supervisor presence, the referees will not start the match or they will terminate the match immediately. The team that has no supervisor appearance shall bear the consequence and responsibility. Each team official shall only enroll as game supervisor for one team in each age group.

It is the responsibility of the Game Supervisor to ensure that all the match documents required are correct, including but not limited to the Team List [Form B], the event supervisor and Registration Card of Game Supervisors and Players, etc. Game Supervisor shall sign and confirm to receive the red and yellow card records after the match.

45. Any request for the registration of the Game Supervisors must be submitted in writing on or before 29th May 2020. Any late request will not be entertained. However, teams can amend the Game Supervisors from the list of registered team officials at any time throughout the season.

Team List (Form B)

46. Before the competition begins, the Game Supervisor and the captain of each team must fill out Form B (teams could make copy of Form B, but cannot amend any content of Form B), which is issued by HKFA and shall be confirmed and signed by the game supervisor and the captain. Players in the competition and the registration number and jersey number of each player shall be specified in the Form. The Form together with the list of game supervisors and players shall be given to the referee for inspection during the provided period prior to the match. The referee and duty officer must:
- 1) check the identity of each player to play the competition; and
 - 2) submit the team sheet player, substitution sheet and the referee's report to HKFA within forty-eight (48) hours after the competition.

If the referee or the duty officer suspects any player's identity, he has the right to ask the player to show the ID certificate and sign on the team list.

The team list shall specify the registration number of each player and the number printed on the player's jersey, and the contents of the team sheet shall be confirmed by the game supervisor and the captain of the team by signing on the list prior to the match.

The names of assistant referees and any 4th official for the match shall be indicated in the referee's report.

Referees and Assistant Referees

47. HKFA will appoint referees and assistant referees from the list of registered referees. If all or any referees fail to appear to perform required duties, the Secretariat may appoint, prior to the commencement of the match, other persons as it thinks fit to perform the duties required for referees or assistant referees.

48. If a referee fails to appear or is unable to perform his duties, the first assistant referee shall take charge of the work of the referee and the second assistant referee shall take the position of the first assistant referee. If there is a fourth official, the fourth official shall take the position of the second assistant referee. If there is no fourth official, an attempt to find an registered referee on the field shall be made, and the registered referee, if found, shall take the position of the second assistant referee. If there is no appropriate person found, a person remains a neutral role (i.e. a duty officer, a referee instructor or a referee assessor) shall be arranged to be the second assistant referee.
49. HKFA has the right to decide the remuneration to referees and assistant referees if necessary.
50. Unless the consent of the HKFA is acquired prior to a match, the match shall be played as scheduled. The referee on the site must report to HKFA any incident resulting in delay of the match and any lateness or absence of any assistant referee or oneself. The assistant referee who is late or absent must explain the reason.
51. The referee must send the referee's report, incidents regarding red cards resulting in players from the field, and the report on misconduct of relevant people, including but not limited to players, staff or team supporters to HKFA within 48 hours after the match.

Disciplinary Matters

52. HKFA shall be wholly authorized for discipline matters. Serious incidents and misconducts of staff or players shall be considered by the Disciplinary Committee for proper punishment. Red cards and yellow cards are computed for this competition and will not influence competitions in other groups.

When a team official/player is cautioned by the referee showing a yellow card or is sent off from the field by the referee showing a red card, the team official/player will be subjected to the following rules:

- 1) If a team official/player is sent off from the field by the referee showing a red card or giving two (2) cautions (i.e. 2 yellow cards) in a competition, the team official/player shall be automatically suspended from the next match to be played by his team.
- 2) If a player is cautioned (with a yellow card) in a match and then be sent off from the field by the referee showing a red card for another misconduct in the same match, the player shall be automatically suspended from the next match to be played by her team, and the caution will remain accumulated.
- 3) If a player accumulates five (5) yellow cards (including any yellow cards carried forward from another season), the player shall be automatically suspended from the match to be played by her team following the match where she is obtained the fifth yellow card. In case of accumulated ten (10) yellow cards, the player shall be suspended for two (2) matches, and so on.
- 4) If a team official accumulates three (3) yellow cards, the team official shall be automatically suspended from the match to be played by his/her team following the match where he/she is obtained the third yellow card. In case of accumulated six (6) yellow cards, the team official shall be suspended for two (2) matches, and so on.
- 5) All red cards shall be dealt with in the scheduled period listed in the discipline rules. As for misconduct, the Secretariat shall inform in writing of the date that the misconduct is dealt with.

- 6) All automatic suspensions imposed upon a player shall be the administrative responsibility of the player's team. The team shall be responsible for ensuring that players are qualified for the match.
- 7) The team official and players upon whom a suspension is imposed shall perform such suspension in accordance with the decision made by the Disciplinary Committee.

If the team fails to implement the suspension of the player in accordance with regulations, the team will be judged to lose the related match which the player should not have taken part in, and the player shall still be suspended from the next match to be played by his team. Team shall be fined HK$1,000 for the first time.

53. Suspensions in the Youth League shall be performed in this competition only, except for suspensions carried forward from the previous season.
54. Cautions for team official/player will not be carried forward to next season. Cautions accumulated upon the completion of the current football season shall be automatically cancelled.

Matches Fail to Commence or Being Aborted

54. If a match fails to commence or is aborted by either teams or either team due to a non-force majeure incident, this case will be deemed as a violation and be dealt with by the Disciplinary Committee.
55. If a player is suspended from the match that is aborted due to an incident and no replay is arranged, the suspension decision against the player shall be deemed to have been performed. In case there is a replay, the player shall be suspended from the replay in accordance with regulations.
56. Any yellow card or red card acquired and misconduct committed in an aborted competition shall be dealt with by the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with regulations.

Suspensions Carried Forward From the Previous Season

57. If any suspension of a player is not performed in the Youth League at the end of this season, the suspension shall carry into the competition with the highest level that the player is entitled to participate in the next season. Levels of competitions are provided below in the order from the highest to the lowest level:

Premier League→ Reserve Division→ First Division→ Second Division→ Third Division→ Youth League

For a registered Premier League player, suspensions carried forward from the previous season of the Youth League may be replaced by payment while the related procedures shall be completed at least forty-eight (48) hours before commencement of the first Premier League match that the player has to play.

'Cooling break' procedures for match days

1. The 'Very Hot Weather Warning' of The Hong Kong Observatory will be the official measurement used to determine whether cooling breaks shall be implemented. 'Cooling break' will be adopted if the 'Very Hot Weather Warning' is issued 30 minutes before the kick off time of the match.
2. At 30 minutes before kick-off, Duty Officer will notice referees and game supervisor of both teams the arrangement of 'Cooling break'.
3. 'Cooling break' of 2 minutes in duration will be implemented by the referee.
4. For the normal 90-minute matches, 'Cooling break' will be implemented at around 30th and 75th minute respectively; For U15 80-minute matches, 'Cooling break' will be implemented at around 20th and 60th minute respectively; And no 'Cooling break' for any U13 and U14 matches.
5. Time consumed for 'Cooling break' will be added into the additional time of the session respectively.

'Cooling break' details

1. The ball must be out of play for the break to commence.
2. The referee will signal the start of the break, informing both teams, assistant referees, 4th officials bench (if provided) and duty officer.
3. All players will go to their respective bench/ technical area and use ice and cool towels to cool down.
4. The referee will signal the conclusion of the break after which the match will restart at which play was stopped.

Match days drinking procedures

In general matches, players are able to have drinks during the stoppage of play. For matches which 'Cooling break' is adopted, players are also able to have drinks with below guidelines apart from the 'Cooling break':

1. Drinks/ beverages should be consumed during stoppage of play.
2. Consumption should take place at the touch line from the technical area of the team benches.
3. Bottles may be handed to the players along the touch line from the technical area in front of the team benches. It is forbidden to throw bottles onto the field of play.
4. Goalkeepers may keep a drink/beverage in a plastic bottle outside of the goal and off the field of play at least 1 meter from the end line.
